Wood.-Some one who tried it says: I discovered many years ago that wood could be made to last longer than iron in the ground, but thought the process so simple and inexpensive that it was not worth while making any stir about it. I woold as soon have poplar, basswood, or quaking asp as any other kind of timber for fence-posts. After having been set seven years, they were as sound when taken out as when they were first put in the ground. Time and weather seem to have no effect on them. The posts can be prepared for less than two cents apiece. This is the recipe: Take boiled linseed oil and stir it in pulverized charcoal to the consistency of paint. Put a coat of this over the timber, and there is not a man that will live to see it rot.

The ways of women sre past finding out. It is said that the ladies of Hartford, Ct., have a fashion of tying up their taper fingers when young gentlemen are expected to call, and when they very naturally ask the cause they blushingly remark: "I burned them broiling steak this morning." The result is that seve ral young gentlemen have burned their fingers believing the story.

It was mentioned one day to President Lincoln that two young ladies of his acquaintance had quarrelled and loaded each other with abuse, "Have they called each ugly?" asked the President. "No, sir." "Very good; then I will undertake to reconcile them."

Dress has a moral effect upon the conduct of mankind. Let any gentleman find himself with dirty boots, old surtout, soiled neckcloth, and a general negligence of dress, and he will, in all probability, find a corresponding disposition by negligence of address.

Ague Conquerer;
No QUININE, ARSENIC OR POISONS. This is strong language, as Physicians and Chemists have for years tried to compound a preparation that would entirely cure Fever and Ague without the use of strong medicine, such as Quinine, Arsenic and other poisons injurious to the system. There is no case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Bilious Fevers, Congestive Chills, Night Sweats, Liver Complaints, c. that this remedy will not cure at once and permanently. It purifies the Blood, Liver, Spleens and all secreatory organs so effectually that the Chills will not return during the season, even when persons have had them for years. je 16-eo3m HENRY COOK & CO.

A meeting of the Conservative voters of Jefferson township will be held at the toll gate on the Columbia turnpike, on the 24th of August, at 4 o'clock p. m., to appoint three delegues to attend a convention to be held on the 26th of August, in Alexandria, to nominate a candidate for Congress from this district.
